

Evaluations 2nd Touch 2018 – ESSENCE

What I Learned or Gained

It was very nice to learn about Eduardo Bonnín and all that is happening especially his pathway to Sainthood – it was amazing to learn

Persevere in prayer

To bring group reunion format back to my permanent group

Go to Ultreya more often

Will read the book we received to get insight into roots of our Movement

Leaders school is for everyone

Essence of Cursillo is Jesus

Increased knowledge about Cursillo Movement

Trusting in the Lord

Importance of Grouping and Ultreya

Grace of Reconciliation

Importance of small group

Discovered how to do Liturgy of the Hours

Fasting is important

Be & remain open

Fellowship is everything

Listen, and listen for God's voice

Definition of Essence

Witness first – teach second

Get in & stay in a permanent group

The idea of sending Letters to the far away (& our children)

Meeting new cursillistas

Sharing stories with others

Importance of charism

Importance to study Eduardo Bonnín

Importance of spiritual friendships

To write my story of my journey for younger people in my family

Reach for the Essence

How much I love and need my Cursillo community

Need to listen better for God's voice

Letting my guard down to share my own experiences

Be a witness

Invite someone to Cursillo & to Church

Lead by Example

Become ready to belong to a permanent group

Continue to learn more about Cursillo

Who can I take to heaven with me?

Ultreya and permanent groups are a good idea

Each person has something to contribute to a permanent group

Learned about leadership school

What I Learned or Gained (continued)

Will pray for Eduardo's Sainthood

Trust, trust, trust

Pray unceasingly

Ability to have a nice confession

Liked the central theme and word to drive home

Put Christ in center of all we do by sharing our plan & actions for the following week

What was Meaningful to me:

Sisters Chapel most meaning moments of piety

Loved having Mass in the Sisters chapel

All was meaningful as they lead us to friendship and study

Ongoing communication on all levels for each cursillista

Helped me refocus and prepare for lent

Inspired to become more holy, visible and vocal

To refresh my faith life

Reconnecting

Reinforced the Cursillo method

2nd touch brings me fully into the Cursillo family

Support of others is important

Reminded to reach out to those in need

Sparked my resolution to do better

Connected with Spanish community in Rochester

Feel peaceful and joyous after the weekend

Group sharing was meaningful

Very inspiring, recharged my batteries

Great time to step away from the world and spent time with Lord & friends

Importance of a diverse community in Cursillo

Great shot in the arm

Sharing information was meaningful

Developing friendships

Event was religious but also social and interactive

Convinced me not to give in or give up

Thank God for caring people

Improvements

Have a sign up for those who are seeking a permanent group

More opportunity for silence and adoration

Need better microphones

Need handouts for songs & DeColores

Comments

The emcee & speakers were very good

More small group interaction after talks

Already planning to bring friends next year
